Blush Forward with Weekly Beauty and Fashion Inspiration

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 10, 2017 – Beginning February 5, 2018, the YouTube channel BlushingForward will be posting a new beauty, fashion, or lifestyle video to enjoy every Monday. The beauty, fashion, and lifestyle trends of 2018 promise to be exciting and dynamic. Tap into all the trends as Brenna Mielke of BlushingForward shares her unique perspective on all of the old, the new, and the must-haves for 2018.

Celebrating individual beauty while inspiring creativity is the motivation of BlushingForward. Every woman has a unique story to share. With that as the focus, Brenna, proprietor of BlushingForward, presents an opportunity each week to either enjoy a new makeup technique, a new flourish with a favorite outfit, or a fresh perspective on daily lifestyle management. Brenna shares, “My energy is based in my need to inspire and share, but just as important, is my desire to learn from all of the women that have joined the BlushingForward journey with me. Send me comments! Ask me questions! BlushingForward is about blushing forward together. Connect with me every week.”

About BlushingForward: The BlushingForward YouTube channel features beauty, fashion, and lifestyle videos and was launched in the summer of 2016. To complement the YouTube channel, Brenna went live with her website and blog, www.blushingforward.com, in the spring of 2017.
